NEWS RELEASE

Perenco wins the Leader's Award for Operational Excellence at African Energy Week for the second consecutive year

Perenco, one of the leading companies in the energy sector in Central Africa, is proud to announce that it has been honored for the second consecutive year with the Leader's Award for Operational Excellence at the African Energy Week held in Cape Town from October 16 to 20, 2023.

This prestigious award recognises exceptional achievements in operational performance and support for the development of the countries where the company operates.

During the event, organisers highlighted Perenco's commitment to advancing major projects, highlighting the company's significant contribution to sustainable development and economic growth in the region.

Commenting on the award, Benoît de la Fouchardière, Group General Manager of Perenco, said:

"We are extremely proud and honored to receive the Leader's Award for Operational Excellence for the second consecutive year. This recognition is testament to the unswerving commitment of our employees, bold and committed, who are behind this success. At Perenco, we are determined to continue working closely with local communities and governments to promote the economic and social development of the region. This award is a great encouragement as we continue our mission in an exemplary manner."

African Energy Week is one of the most important energy sector events in Africa, bringing together leaders, experts and key decision-makers to discuss critical sector issues and explore growth opportunities in the field of energy.

About Perenco: Founded thirty years ago, Perenco is an independent hydrocarbon producer involved in the entire lifecycle of projects, from exploration to decommissioning. Gross production is 500,000 BOE of oil and gas per day. The group's strength lies in the technical ingenuity and versatility of its 6,800 employees, who deliver safe and environmentally aware solutions to oil and gas fields around the world. By enhancing and developing local resources, Perenco is proud to support economic growth and social development wherever it works. Perenco operates in 14 partner countries and is based in the United Kingdom.
